

BTEC level 2 Diploma in Applied Science Edexcel

What does the course involve?

This course is particularly relevant for those of you who aspire to working in various professions within the science, criminal investigation or engineering sectors or those wishing to continue their studies towards a goal of University. This is a one year course designed to develop your knowledge and application of science to the world around us, including the human body, space and the universe, and forensic science. You will also improve your practical laboratory skills conducting supervised experiments and investigations.

As part of your main programme of study you will work towards a qualification in English, Maths or ICT where appropriate.

www.johnruskin.ac.uk

What units will I be studying?

You will learn about the impact of:

- Biology and Chemistry on the earth as well as the role and application of Physics to the universe.
- You will also look at further roles of Biology and Chemistry in science careers as well as learning about crime scene investigations.
- You will also have the opportunity to study the human body in more detail and the illnesses and diseases that can affect it .

What are the career opportunities open to me if I take this course?

This will lead to gaining knowledge in a variety of elements of applied science, which could increase your chances of employment in this field. As for academic progression you could attempt the Level 2 pathway in Pharmacy Services or the Level 3 Diplomas in Applied Science or Pharmacy.

www.johnruskin.ac.uk

Entry Requirements for Level 2 Qualifications (GCSE Equivalents):

Learners must have at least 4 GCSEs D-E or above, including English (or the equivalent), and Maths (or the equivalent) where applicable for Science courses, or a merit or above at a full level 1 course.

Learners at all levels will be expected to undertake an initial assessment to ascertain they are on the correct level of course.

For further information telephone:

020 8651 1131

Details can be subject to change.